SCHOOL REOPENING PLAN UPDATE

AUGUST 7, 2020

MICHELLE T. BRADLEY

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Governor Cuomo's School Reopening Decision

- On Friday August 7, 2020, Governor Cuomo announced that schools may reopen in the fall.
- Specific district plans must be posted online by Friday August 14, 2020. The plans are:
 - ▶ COVID-19 Testing
 - ▶ Contact Tracing
 - ▶ Remote Learning
- Virtual sessions with teachers and parents must be scheduled before August 21, 2020.

The district will begin to review guidance related to these requirements put forth by Governor Cuomo and plan accordingly.

Remote Learning Plan

Remote Learning - Every Other Day

- This is part of the District's HYBRID plan.
- Students are assigned to a BLUE cohort or a GOLD cohort.
- Students report to school for in-person instruction on either BLUE day or GOLD day AND participate in remote learning the opposite day.
- During these remote learning days students will:
 - ▶ follow a schedule provided by the classroom teacher.
 - ▶ participate in a Google Meet session(s) with the teacher for attendance taking purposes.
 - ▶ visit Google Classroom to complete a variety of assignments by teacher(s).
 - ▶ complete independent work as assigned by teacher(s).

Remote Learning - Every Day Option

- This is an OPTION instead of the HYBRID model.
- Students WILL NOT report to school for in-person instruction and will learn remotely from home every day.
- During these remote learning days students will:
 - ▶ be assigned to a classroom teacher from their school AND/OR a remote learning teacher.
 - ▶ follow a schedule provided by the classroom teacher.
 - ▶ participate in Google Meet session(s) daily with the remote learning teacher.
 - ▶ visit Google Classroom to complete a variety of assignments by teacher(s).
 - ▶ complete independent work as assigned by teacher(s).
